Marta Niemczyńska representing the company Biblioteka Ubrań sp.z o.o. with full responsibility recommends the cooperation to the accounting office of JWW sp. z o.o.

Biblioteka Ubrań from the beginning of its activity has been under the care of an accountant run by the JWW. The innovative profile of the company often required individual or additional attention to a given issue, and in both cases the employees of the accounting office showed great commitment and professionalism. All matters related to accounting services were always carried out scrupulously and ahead of schedule. Additionally, at JWW there is a nice and positive atmosphere, and what is equally important is quick and matter-of-fact communication.

As the owner of the company, I would be pleased to recommend the JWW accounting office to cooperate with all those who want to focus on running and developing their company, and at the same time be sure and comfortable that accounting issues are in good hands.
